Foreword

The purpose of this publication is twofold: (1) It is intended as a general reference aid for anyone interested in researching information data on our provincial elections and by-elections over the last one hundred plus years. And (2) it is our hope at Elections P.E.I. that any and all persons interested in the province's political history - be they elementary students with school projects to seniors doing family history research - will see Elections P.E.I. as another source for providing historical data pertaining to our political past and present.

There is a wealth of information contained within these pages which spans over our political fields beginning with the General Election of 12 December 1900 and runs right up to January 2009. This election data has been broken down into twelve categories to make locating data as accessible to the researcher as possible. These twelve categories or sections are as follows: (1) Chronological Listing of all Provincial General Elections and Provincial By-Elections from 1900 to January 2009; (2) Provincial General Election Results from 1900 to 2009; (3) Provincial By-Election Results from 1900 to 2009; (4) Chronological Listing of all Nominated Candidates from 1900 to January 2009; (5) Alphabetical Listing of all Nominated Candidates from 1900 to January 2009 and finally (6) P.E.I. Electoral District Riding Maps; (7) A Brief History of Electoral Reform on Prince Edward Island; (8) General Elections Statistics from 1966 to 2007; (9) Provincial Plebiscites; (10) Prince Edward Island Chief Electoral Officers; (11) Prince Edward Island Deputy Chief Electoral Officers Elections P.E.I. and (12) Provincial Returning Officers for the 2007 Provincial General Election. These sections provide everything from listing each individual candidate who ran in each electoral district, each candidate's corresponding position and party affiliation as well as their opponents, the district to which he/she was nominated to represent along with the winner and even the number of votes cast for each candidate.

The Office of Elections P.E.I. is located at 94 Great George Street and currently consists of two staff members: Lowell Croken, Chief Electoral Officer and Norma Palmer-Bowers, Deputy Chief Electoral Officer. This document is a natural extension to our office mandate which is to conduct and administer all provincial elections in Prince Edward Island under the Elections Act and ensure accountability under the Election Expenses Act. Our principle mandate is to inform and enable all qualified electors and candidates to exercise their democratic right and ensure their constitutional entitlement in elections as entrenched in the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms. Official election results are available in the reports of the Chief Electoral Officer from 1966 to present and copies are available at our Elections P.E.I. office. The Elections P.E.I. website contains these reports as well as other provincial electoral information and the address for this website is www.electionpei.ca.

We hope you enjoy this document. We have tried to be as accurate as humanly possible in presenting this information; however, if you should find an error or omission, please contact our Elections Office so we may continue with our mission of providing accurate political Island information.

Prince Edward Island

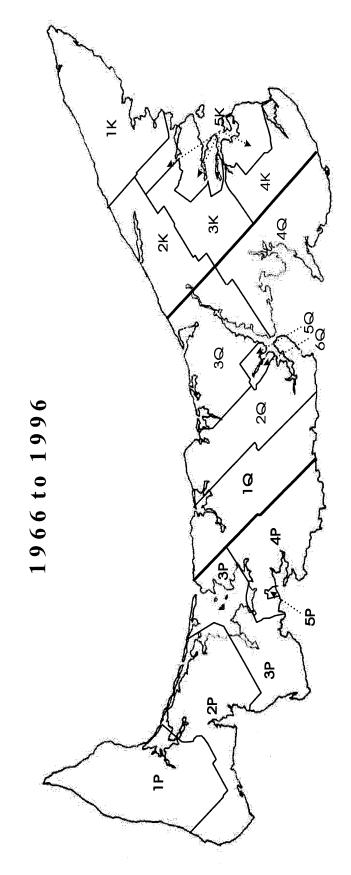

15 Dual Member Districts

In 1893, the House of Assembly and the Legislative Council were combined to form one chamber, the Legislative Assembly. The new Legislative Assembly consisted of 15 dual member ridings for a total of 30 members. This established five districts to each of the three counties.

Prince Edward Island

16 Dual Member Districts

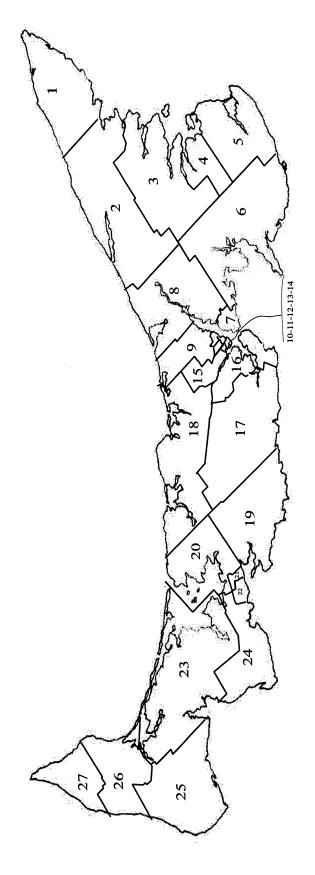

In 1966 the Legislative Assembly approved the 16 dual member provincial electoral districts electing at the time of the issue of the Writ on 16 April 1966 for the general election of 20 May 1966. This change brought about the revision to Fifth Queens (Charlottetown Common and Royalty), dividing that into two new electoral districts; namely, Fifth Queens and Sixth Queens.
