

Are you Missing Winter?

We have certainly lived through one of the oddest Springs in the history of PEI. The COVID-19 crisis put a stop to the annual enjoyment of getting outside to enjoying the great Island outdoors with family and friends. Well, summer is here and restrictions are easing for Islanders to try and resume a normal way of life on PEI. Elections PEI wishes you and your family a safe and enjoyable summer.

COVID-19: Now What?

Elections PEI has been closely monitoring the COVID-19 outbreak and its impact on Prince Edward Island. In between electoral events, Elections PEI continues it's ongoing readiness planning, and as part, we're exploring a possible new operational approach to delivering an election in the context of a pandemic and post-pandemic. The health and safety of electors and the thousands of election workers who make a general election possible will always be a priority. As a result, Elections PEI is currently analyzing which measures should be put in place for the next election event.

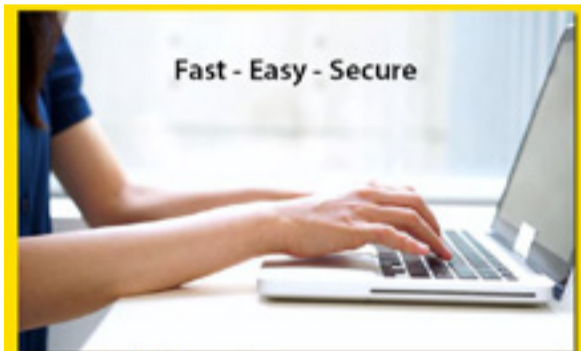

Three Levels of Government

Elections PEI is very proud to have produced two new information videos on democracy, explaining the Three Levels of Government we elect and the responsibilities of each government. Take a moment and visit our YouTube page to watch them.
